WELCOME TO GIBBON

WEBBING THE WORLD

Since 2007 the GIBBON brand represents a new generation in slacklining. Initiated through the interest within our community of friends, we came together and decided to share this slackline-lifestyle with the whole world. Our community spans a global network of slackline enthusiasts, whether in the virtual world of the World Wide Web, or in real life. From Japan to Brazil, from the USA to Europe, GIBBON is associated with quality, the furtherment of the sport of slacklining and its athletes, and of course the fun that comes with it.

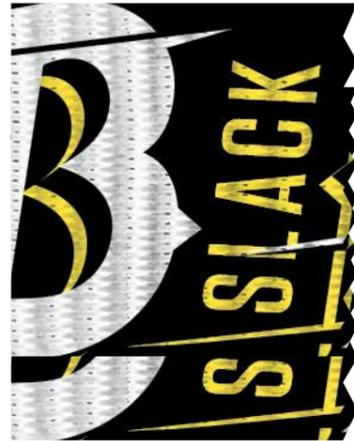

The multinational community of slackline enthusiasts gets involved in online campaigns, giving the sport of slacklining a founded presence in the world of Youtube and Facebook. With this we can quickly react to new trends and spot, young talents who we then support. This social engagement furthers the sport and has encouraged us to be the official supporter and organiser of the Slackline World Championship, and the Slackline WorldCup. In addition to the presence of our GIBBON Team at slackline events and the overwhelming international media presence of GIBBON Slacklines, it now even resulted in media co-operations with several superstars. Our Pro Team Riders Jaan Roose (Estonia), Carlos Neto (Brazil), and Hayden Nickell (USA) play a mayor role during the entire Madonna "MDNA" World Tour. They even perform as dancers and stuntmen and are personally teaching Madonna during her daily slackline workout.

5 years ago we revolutionized the sport of slacklining with innovative developments. A system such as the two-part ratchet slackline-set made it possible for anyone to try and experience the sport, and played a vital part in the spreading popularity of this sport. The fact that all slackline manufacturers have released copies of our system speaks for itself. Constant development of technology and the sport, together with the best slackliners in the world, is what we strive for. Equally important is the health aspect our product has shown considerable potential for, with our products increasingly showing up in the health sector and school/university gyms. Slacklining is showing up in more and more aspects of our daily life, and exactly this is our goal.
